Wall Street, Thursday, April 30. The stock market made a further decline to-day. The greatest weakness was in the early hours. A slight rally occurred in the last hour on account of the weakening of foreign exchange, which indicated smalle gold shipments than had been expected earlier in the day. The call of the Treasury Department for the return of another instal ment of special deposits in the Government bond depositories had a sentimental effect upon the foreign exchange market, and when the intending gold shippers placed their bills in the market they found it im possible to place large amounts of exchange in the market without forcing rates below the gold export point. The gold, however will go next week and the shipments are only postponed.
